

Online Assignment 8

Use this form to create the records for your three items. Perform the following tasks:

1. Transfer the codes for the Leader from Assignment 2 into the appropriate boxes in the Leader.
2. Transfer your DDC and LCC call numbers (classification number and Cutter for LCC and classification number for Dewey) from Assignment 7 to the appropriate fields and subfields.
3. Transfer your subject headings from Assignment 5 into the appropriate 6XX fields.
4. Fill in the correct indicators for each MARC field. A blank indicator is shown by using the pound symbol, "#".
5. Follow the appropriate RDA rules and LC PCC PS, if any exist, for each field and subfield.
6. Make sure to use proper ISBD punctuation where appropriate. (HINT: look at the examples for the field on one of the MARC standards sites to see proper ISBD punctuation.)
7. Fill in the authorized headings for the 1XX, 7XX, and 8XX fields as necessary. Use the LC Authorities website to find authorized headings.

If a field is not appropriate to apply to your item, then place "N/A" in the field or subfield. DO NOT JUST LEAVE A FIELD OR SUBFIELD BLANK. Doing so will count against your grade.

520	#	#	 $$a Ella Minnow Pea is a girl living happily on the fictional island of Nollop off the coast of South Carolina. Nollop was named after Nevin Nollop, author of the immortal phrase containing all the letters of the alphabet, "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog." Now Ella finds herself acting to save her friends, family, and fellow citizens from the encroaching totalitarianism of the island's Council, which has banned the use of certain letters of the alphabet as they fall from a memorial statue of Nevin Nollop. As the letters progressively drop from the statue they also disappear from the novel. The result is both a hilarious and moving story of one girl's fight for freedom of expression, as well as a linguistic tour de force sure to delight word lovers everywhere.
